Welcome

Welcome to the Australian Wine Showcase: Taste Beyond in Bangkok.

Exclusive for trade professionals, this showcase offers the opportunity to discover Australia's distinctive wine regions, connect with the people behind the wines, and uncover new opportunities for your portfolio and customers. From established classics to emerging varieties and contemporary styles, today's tasting highlights a wine story shaped by craftsmanship, creativity and a spirit of exploration.

Australian wines offer quality, versatility, and a strong sense of place, making them a natural complement to the vibrant flavours and shared dining traditions of Southeast Asia. As Thailand's wine market continues to evolve, Australian wine provides authentic stories and distinctive styles that meet growing consumer demand for discovery and premium experiences.

We invite you to taste beyond what you already know, challenge expectations, and discover the wines, regions and producers behind every glass of Australian wine.

Cheers

Portia Valley Wines

CLARE VALLEY • COONAWARRA
McLAREN VALE • RIVERLAND

Portia Valley Wines was established by Chris and Teresa Grigoriou. Chris, a third-generation viticulturist and winemaker with over 45 years of industry experience, founded the business to continue his family's winemaking tradition. Located in the heart of South Australia's Riverland, Australia's largest wine-growing region, Portia Valley owns and operates 150 acres of vineyards in Monash Valley and Loveday. The vineyards, planted between 1990 and 2005, are Australian Certified Organic and managed with a strong focus on sustainability. Portia Valley also sources premium fruit from renowned South Australian wine regions, including Clare Valley, McLaren Vale, and Coonawarra.

Wirra Wirra

MCLAREN VALE - ADELAIDE HILLS

Three Iconic Australian Wineries. Three Distinctive Terroirs. Three Unique Legacies. Wirra Wirra, Ashton Hills and Hahndorf Hill are three family-owned estates shaping the future of South Australian fine wine. Today these legacies live through a shared ambition to make wines of real consequence from places of rare character. Each winery stands on its own feet with its own identity, vineyard voice and winemaking culture. Together they represent a long-term commitment to land, people and place, and a belief that South Australia can sit confidently among the great regions of the world. The estates farm with care, protect their sites for future generations and place sustainability at the centre of every decision.

Bleasdale Vineyards

LANGHORNE CREEK - ADELAIDE HILLS

Founded in 1850, Bleasdale Vineyards is one of Australia's oldest wineries, celebrating 176 years of continuous winemaking by the direct descendants of the Potts family. A founding winery of the Langhorne Creek region, Bleasdale helped shape its reputation for vibrant, elegant and beautifully textured wines. The fertile floodplains provide ideal conditions for premium grape growing, reflected in every bottle. Recognised as one of the country's leading producers, Bleasdale was named Halliday Winery of the Year 2024 and has won the prestigious Jimmy Watson Trophy multiple times, cementing its place among Australia's most respected wineries.

Soul Growers

BAROSSA VALLEY • ADELAIDE HILLS

Soul Growers stands for everything that is great about the Barossa; tradition, shared wisdom, new ideas, mateship and a passion for making and enjoying great wine. We see the grape growers of the Barossa Valley as being the very soul of the region, hence our brand. Our goal is to let the vineyards we work with show through in our wines. Where nature provides, we only guide. With this in mind we strive to make sure Soul Growers wines emphasise the regional and varietal flavours of our beloved Barossa Valley. The essence of what we strive for is to ensure a lifestyle that's good for The soul; wine, food, family, music and fun.

Gill Estate

VICTORIA

Gill Estate focuses on high-quality sustainable certified Victorian wines using traditional methods. Across the business, the Gill family holds to the philosophy that carried Billa through those early years: work the land but grow with it. That commitment drives the family's approach to regenerating and reusing water, energy and resources on the property, and it's why the winery and vineyards are sustainably certified and producing award winning wines.

Qualia Wines

MURRAY DARLING

Australia's specialist wine partner, supplying bespoke wine solutions to more than 35 countries worldwide. Qualia make wines that complement a contemporary lifestyle and have an 'above and beyond' attitude, delivering quality and relevance in a competitive market. We source grapes from the major premium viticultural regions in Victoria and South Australia including McLaren Vale, Langhorne Creek, Adelaide zone, and Limestone Coast. The majority of the crush, however, is from within the Murray Darling region. A good winery and winemaking team are judged not by their finest wine, but by their humblest. This is the wine that must impress for its character, generosity and authenticity. It's these qualities that translate to value – and that's ultimately the consumer's judgement.

Carlei Estate Wines

COONAWARRA • HEATHCOTE • PORT PHILLIP • YARRA VALLEY

Carlei® Estate Wines, established in 1990 with its first release in 1994, has built a diverse vineyard footprint through careful site selection across Victoria (Yarra Valley, Heathcote, Cardinia Ranges) and, more recently, Coonawarra in South Australia. Certified biodynamic practices underpin its portfolio of ultra-premium Australian wines, reflecting the interplay of vine, soil, climate, and natural cycles. Carlei's research into flavour development led to the term 'Cosmoir®', describing the holistic terrestrial and cosmological influences on wine flavour – a concept the estate believes will redefine traditional 'terroir'. Combining biodynamic expertise with scientific rigour, Carlei Wines maintains an enduring reputation for sustainability, innovation, and winemaking excellence.
